

2013 Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Eta Psi Omega Chapter

Honourees

Antonette-June Loon pursues her studies at Sir Jack Hayward High School in Grand Bahama. She abides by the Japanese proverb "Fall down seven times, stand up eight" and Mahatma Gandhi's admonition to "Be the change that you wish to see in the world". Antonette participates in BIYLD – Bahamas Institute of Youth Leadership Development and serves as Treasurer of her Interact Club.

Camille Wright is an honor roll student at Anatol Rodgers High School. Through her hard work and determination she would one day like to be Pediatrician. She has received many accolades such as Principal List for 5 years, Deputy Head Girl of Anatol Rodgers High and Vice President of the Zeta Phi Beta Archonettes Programme. She is also a member of Key Club therefore she is no stranger to community service. Camille's favourite quote is "You must be the change you wish to see in the world", Mahatma Gandhi.

Camyka "Cammy" Moore has the ambition of being a Hotel/Restaurant owner or manager, or other pursuits in the Culinary Arts. C.I. Gibson High School in New Providence is where she studies and serves as President of the school's Student Christian Ministry. Camyka also volunteers at Potential Church. Mentored by Joye Ross, Camyka's inspirational quote is that "If being beautiful in the eyes of the Creator, means being ugly in the eyes of the created... I choose God". She is on the Honour Roll and has Leadership Certificates for 2008 – 2010.

Carlene Etienne hails from Preston Albury High School in Rock Sound, Eleuthera, where her versatility is evident. Carlene is an active participant in several organizations including the School's Key Club and the Multi-Purpose Junior Cooperative Society and the Fine Arts Club. Her academic talents have been showcased through her numerous awards including Best BJC Results in Preston Albury High and Most Outstanding awards in Accounts, Commerce and English Literature. She believes that "In life there are no limitations."

Charese "Reese" Kemp hails from Central Pines Estate in Abaco where she attends St. Francis de Sales Secondary School. Charese's future plans are to be a Pharmacist. Meanwhile, she participates in the Interact Club (Rotary High School division) at her school. Charese's acknowledges Ms. Mackey as her mentor in her pursuit of these endeavors.

No stranger to hard work and dedication, Chrislynn Rolle, aspires to be a gynecologist. She is an honor roll student and has already obtained seven BGCSE's. In addition to her many accomplishments she also serves her school Preston Albury, Rock Sound Eleuthera as Head Girl and Prefect. Her life's philosophy is depicted through the statement, "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."

Clarenisha Neilly attends Mastering Yourself in New Providence. Clarenisha's future plan is to become an Intensive Care Neonatal Nurse and her favorite saying is "If You Believe You Will Achieve."

Davette Morley is completing her secondary level education at Windermere High School in Eleuthera. This daughter of two entrepreneurs hopes to be an Accountant. “Day” as she is affectionately called, feels that “Better late than never, but never late is better” are words to live by. She is involved in Girl Guides at Windermere High School and also teaches classes.

Demi Burrows attends NGM Major High School in Long Island where she has earned numerous awards and recognitions including Student Leader at Bahamas Youth Network, Best Speaker for Long Island in National Debate. She also participates on the Debate Team and is a prefect. Demi’s career ambition is to be a Pediatrician or Lab Technician. Her favorite quote: Nothing is impossible. The word itself says “I’m Possible”

Frederica Dames of Kemp’s Bay, Andros attends South Andros High School. She is an after-school tutor and serves on the Local Government Junior Council. Frederica is mentored by Anatol Young and feels that Winners never quit, and quitters never win.

Garrinique Taylor is our honouree from Inagua All Age School. She has taken 4 BGCSE’s - English, Keyboarding, History, Spanish. Garri attends St. Philip’s Anglican Church in Inagua where she is involved in the Christian Youth Movement. She wants to be a Dentist or Orthodontist and looks up to poet Maya Angelou as a mentor. “Don’t let your ears hear what your eyes didn’t see” is Garrinique’s quote of choice.

Hannah Thompson is a student at Queen’s College, New Providence. She has received the national award for the top score in BJC Math and Health Science and was the Deputy Head Girl at Queen’s College last school year. Hannah is en route to being a physician and strives to “Be the change you want to see in the world”.

Javonya Bethel is the honouree selected by Doris Johnson Senior High School where she is on the principal’s list, honour roll and has perfect attendance. This young lady feels that “Choice, not chance, determines your destiny” and she has chosen to participate in Central Baptist Church Youth Group, the Tourism Club and the Student Council. Vonya hopes to be a Dentist.

Kendra Sharnice Colebrooke attends The Government High School. Kendra aspires to become an Accountant and holds her Mother in high esteem as her Mentor. She participates in the Transformation Ministries International and her favorite saying is “Never Give Up On Your Dreams!”

Kenteeshe Williams attends Old Bight High in Cat Island. She is the President of St. Saviour’s Parish Youth and likes to quote: Study to show yourself approved. RoxAnn Williams is Kenteeshe’s mentor. Kenteeshe’s career ambition is to be an inspired Accountant at a firm where she can constantly display her skills.

Khadijah Ashley Hamilton attends R. M. Bailey Sr. High in New Providence. There, she has earned the distinction of being granted the awards of Most Outstanding Student, Valedictorian, Highest GPA, Southeastern District and Science Bowl. She is also involved in the Interact Club. Khadijah is known for saying: Knowledge is Power.

Kristina Anna Knowles attends Central Eleuthera High where she is the Head Girl. She has the distinction of being on the Honor Roll from Grade 7-12, The Principle's List and a member of the 2012 Carifta Team. She is also the Treasurer of the Key Club, a G.G.Y.A. Bronze Medalist and Nursing Cadet. Kristina's long term goal is to become a Pediatrician or Business Manager. Her favorite sayings are "Just Do It" and "Struggle Is Real!"

Lyrice Darryn Culmer attends Akhepran International Academy in New Providence. She was on the Honor Roll from 2009-2011, was recognized as the Sunday School Student of the year in 2009 has a Certificate of Recognition from the Royal Academy of Dance and has obtained 6 BJCs. Lyrice's goal is to become a pediatric Oncologist and her favorite quote is "If you have only one smile give it to the people you love" by Maya Angelou.

Paytan Stubbs is the Head Girl at Abaco Central High. Paytan is involved in Toastmasters, Ranger Club and the Volleyball Team. She notes that her mother, Lavaughn Stubbs is her mentor, and that Paytan is known for saying "I have to get an A".

Princess Malena McKinney is all the way from the wonderful Island of Mayaguana where she attends the Abraham's Bay High School. With the assistance of her Mentors, Brian Williams and Susan Miller, her life's ambition is to become a Teacher. Princess is an Honor Roll Student who has won many awards including Student of the Month, National Arts Festival merit, National Drug Council and Speech and Debate. She is a Red Cross Volunteer, in the Police Mentoring Programme, Berea Mission Youth Group and the President of the Teacher's Cadet, Builders Club and Student Christian Movement. Princess favorite saying is "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Raaven Goffe is a proud green giant of St. John's College. She contends that, "Discipline is the bridge between goals and accomplishments." Her discipline has led to several accomplishments including Member of the Academic Honor Society, St. John's Emerald Club, Distinction in BGCSE's in Math, and English. Raaven's ultimate career goal is to become a Cardio-Thoracic Surgeon. She admires Michelle Obama and the work she does for others.

Ricquel Rolle hails from the home of the Big Red Machine, St. Augustine's College. She is an honor student maintaining a 3.5 GPA and higher. She would like to major in Biochemistry in hopes of becoming a Neurosurgeon. Ricquel has received numerous awards such as BJC merit award for achieving all A's, Student of the year for 3 years, Numerous Subject awards every year, Participant in Carifta Swimming for 5 years & Carifta Medalist and Certificate for Nursing Cadets. She is no stranger to competition, she participated in many swimming competitions such as Carifta and CISC. She is an active member of the church and also a youth leader at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. Ricquel's favorite quote is "To thine own self be true." - Shakespeare.

Rose Mika Charles attends S.C. Bootle High in Cooper's Town, Abaco. Rose Mika hopes to be a Physician. Meanwhile, she is a Sunday School teacher, Miss Teen Abaco, serves on the Junior Local Government and Coastal Clean-Up. Rose Mika feels that there are three D's in life: Discipline, Dedication and Determination. Mrs. Kowalram mentors Rose Mika.

Shandira Evelyn Sands is all the way from the great Crooked Island where she attends the Crooked Island High School. She participates in the Crooked Island/Acklins Bank, serves in the Anglican Church, G.G.Y.A., is a Teachers Cadet and on the Debate Team. Shandira ambition is to become a Special Education Teach with the help of her Mother and Mentor Paula Lamm.

Shaquan Kemp from Tabernacle Academy in Grand Bahama has the career goal of being an Obstetrician and Gynecologist. Shaquan knows that "Our biggest problem is not that we are inadequate, but that we are powerful beyond measure". Her mother, Linda Kemp mentors Shaquan in her walk to success.

Tabitha Ritchie receives her education at Bishop Michael Eldon High School in Grand Bahama. Tabby wants to major in Psychology while doing a minor in Journalism. She has received awards for Top BJC results, Top BGCSE results, Department among others. Tabitha is the President of the Anchor Club at Bishop Michael Eldon School and feels that "The only opinion about your dreams that counts, is yours".

Taryn Smith is an honor roll student at Sunland Baptist Academy in Freeport, Grand Bahama. She is currently Head Girl and also holds the prestigious honor of being an Academic All Bahamian Scholar. She accredits her successes to her life's philosophy which states, "Work based on principle, not feeling." She also enjoys participating in Freeport Bible Church's Youth Group.

North Eleuthera High School sends Trenique Kelly to represent their institution. Trenique or Nicky is a part of the Student Christian Movement, Church of God Cathedral Youth Choir and the Governor General Youth Award Programme. She has received an award or certificate from the Royal School of Music, and the Bahamas Conference of Methodist Churches Scripture Exam. Trenique's mentor is her mother, Merelyn Kelly. Nicky's inspirational quote is "There is no achievement without goals."

Aquinas College in Nassau sends Troy-Ann Mott as an honouree. Troy-Ann's activities and awards include Track and Field, Community Service, 3rd Place in the Bahamas Laws of Life Essay Contest (2011), Vice - Principal's List (2011-Present), and Most Outstanding Youth of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World Bahamas State Council Finalist (2009). Troy-Anne's words to live by are: "Whatever the mind can conceive and believe, it can achieve."

Valene Rolle attends Aquinas College in Nassau, New Providence. She lives by the motto: Love God, Cherish Life, Be Happy, Do What's Right! She is active in the Aquinas College's Marching, Concert and Pop Band, Drama Club, Debate Team, Student Christian Leadership, Choir and Student Council. Additionally, Valene works with St. John's Native Baptist Cathedral's Youth and Young Adult's Choir, Community Marching Band, Jubilee Dance Ministry and Slam Bam Productions Drama Group, 10th Nassau Company Girl's Brigade and Teacher's Cadets. Valene is also a 2012 Zonta Essay Competition Winner, 2012 Junior Minister of Tourism Representative of Aquinas College and a 2012 Youth Award of Excellence recipient.