Come to Grand Bahama Island in January when the snow may still be on the ground in your driveway. Who knows? The temperatures may even fall below freezing. Now imagine – powder white beaches, warm balmy sunshine, and a slew of outdoor sporting activities available just for you!

Grand Bahama Island is the site of the 2012 Bahamas Law Enforcement Sports Challenge. This exciting event is open to Police, Fire Fighters, Customs, Immigration, Prison Officers, Army, Navy, Air Force, FBI, CIA and members of other Security Forces and their employees.

Enjoy the camaraderie of your fellow law enforcement officers from around the world while competing against them in your favorite outdoor sport. Your registration fee of $150 per person covers your participation in your sports of choice (note: there will be a slight surcharge for special events e.g. golf, fishing). This fee will also cover admission to all sporting events. Please visit bahamaslawgames.com for further details for friends and family participation.

At the deeply discounted air and hotel rates provided to encourage maximum participation, you may decide to treat the entire family. A listing of events and travel offers is outlined below.

See you in Grand Bahama Island in January !
