

FACT SHEET | Rob Robichaud Vantage Airport Group Scholarship in Aviation

ABOUT THE AWARD

- The Rob Robichaud Vantage Airport Group Scholarship in Aviation is a CAD 9,000 award for an international student attending Mount Allison University in Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, and entering or continuing in the Bachelor of Science (Aviation) Program.
- This award is open to students living in The Bahamas or another Caribbean country.
- The award is offered by Vantage Airport Group the manager and operator of the Lynden Pindling International Airport in Nassau, The Bahamas via the Nassau Airport Development Company (NAD); and, operator of Greater Moncton Roméo LeBlanc International Airport in Moncton, NB.

AWARD ELIGIBILITY & APPLICATION

- The $9,000 award towards tuition for an international student is available on an annual basis beginning in the Fall semester of 2018.
- Students entering or continuing in the Bachelor of Science (Aviation) Program will be considered for the award.
- Applicants will be selected based on academic achievement and their admission application.
- Interested applicants can learn more about the eligible programs of the award and how to apply here: www.mta.ca/apply.

ABOUT MOUNT ALLISON UNIVERSITY

- Mount Allison has been ranked Canada's #1 undergraduate university by Maclean's magazine.
- Learn more at www.mta.ca/about.

ABOUT MONCTON, NB

- Greater Moncton has a population of 144,810.
- Learn more at www.moncton.ca.